STUDENT INVOLVEMENT IN DECISIONMAKING

As appropriate to the age of students, class, or school organizations and school government organizations such as student councils may be formed to offer practice in self-government and to serve as channels for the expression of student's ideas and opinions.

The committee will take into consideration student opinions in establishing policies that directly affect student programs, activities, privileges and other areas of student sensitivity.

Students will be welcomed at committee meetings and granted privileges of speaking in line with the privileges extended to the general public.

Student Advisory Committee

*The Westfield School Committee in the interest of being better informed, and to maintain a means of regular communication with those the educational system serves, recognizes and desires to work cooperatively with a student advisory committee composed of secondary students of Westfield Vocational High School and Westfield High School.

Regulations defining this relationship shall be developed by the administration in consultation with student government groups.
